"It was a brilliant event for British Airways to engage with so many teachers and careers advisers - it really supports our own school engagement strategy and desire to further our talent pipeline."

British Airways

"Redrow were very happy to attend the National Careers Guidance Show this year. We met a wide variety of influencers who we hope can help us reach the young people and adults looking to choose construction as a career - the event was really useful and we hope to see a positive influence on our recruitment in the London area this year."

"I really loved the range of exhibitors! There was loads that I was able to pick out, and a huge amount of free resources represented that I just didn't know about before."

Progression and Employability Adviser, Exeter College

"This is one of the most important dates in my calendar and the ideas generated from the event act as a basis for future planning of activities in school. So a massive thank you to you all."

Dedicated seminar programme

Each convention features a quality timetable of seminars which are accredited by the Career Development Institute to provide delegates with CPD points. This ensures visitors spend more time at the event, providing exhibitors with a captivated and engaged audience. The conventions attract high profile key note speakers, who are influential in career education, as well as giving Careers Leaders the chance to share best practice.

Industry insights

This feature offers exhibitors an opportunity to share information about their sectors. These short informal talks, in an open-plan seated area, are available to exhibitors who want to offer delegates an insight into their products, services and initiatives.

Features

Every year, new features are introduced that may include:

- Sector specific zones
- CPD clinics
- Workshops
- Live Networking Board

Typical exhibitors include

- Public and private sector employers
- Government funded organisations
- Colleges and universities
- Training and learning providers
- Awarding bodies
- Sector Skills Councils
- Professional bodies
- Trade organisations
- Charities and associations
- Career resources suppliers
- Recruitment and career development agencies

"The NCGS provides a golden opportunity to speak to careers professionals working 'at the coal face' about careers in the health sector - to answer questions, dispel myths and provide the latest information about career opportunities on offer and new routes into them."

NHS Health
Education England

"Great opportunity to meet exhibitors and attend seminars that have improved my knowledge and awareness which ultimately improves the advice I give my students."

Careers Adviser, Arthur Terry

About Prospects Events

Prospects Events are the market leader in delivering careers, jobs, education, skills, training, apprenticeship and recruitment events across the UK. Our events are free to visit and offer exhibitors direct access to students, young people, families, graduates, teachers and career professionals through a series of successful annual events.

Prospects Events is part of Shaw Trust, a charity helping to transform the lives of one million young people and adults each year by 2022. Our 3,500 staff and 1,400 volunteers work across the UK and internationally, supporting people to develop their potential and live independently.

In addition to the events that Prospects Events own and deliver, we also offer bespoke events for third parties to suit individual client needs ranging from award ceremonies and launches to conferences and business summits.

Our specialist services help people gain an education, enter work, develop their career, improve their wellbeing or rebuild their lives. As a charity we add value to every service we deliver by investing back into the people and communities we support.

Shaw Trust is one of the largest charities in the UK. Comprising Shaw Trust, Prospects, Ixion and Shaw Education Trust, we use our 75 years' combined experience to support people to develop their potential.
