10:30 - 11:00	NHS Health Careers	Abigail Changer	350 Careers. One NHS. Your Future	There are over 350 careers available in the NHS. You'd be surprised how many of them don't require a degree or aren't directly patient-facing. It's not just doctors and nurses! Join Abi to hear about what's on offer in the NHS, the routes in and job seeking tips.
11:30 - 12:00	Unifrog	Victor Bamigboye	Enhancing students' skill development and career opportunities as we begin our Covid recovery	Unifrog's research shows that three quarters of students (72%) think the pandemic will make it harder for them to find a job in the future. This webinar will cover how you can apply blended learning approaches to help students identify and develop the key employability skills identified by leading employers to support them in leading successful careers.
12:30 - 13:00	Department of Education	Carolyn Savage and Stella Pearson	Supporting Post-16 options for young people in schools and colleges	This session will provide an update on post-16 options - apprenticeships, traineeships, and T Levels. We will cover how these options fit together in the post-16 landscape, what the key differences are, and why they may be right for your students. You will also hear about the ASK programme and the new offer to schools and FE Colleges for the summer term. We will also provide you with an update on T Level roll-out, and how we are working through the impacts of the pandemic on post-16 options.
13:30 - 14:00	The Edge Foundation	Olly Newton, Fiona Aldridge and Ryan Gibson	What does the changing world of work mean for careers leaders?	In this seminar, you'll get insights into how the world of work is changing based on The Edge Foundation's extensive research and special guest Dr Fiona Aldridge, Director for Policy and Research at the Learning and Work Institute. We will then discuss what that means for careers leaders and careers practice with Ryan Gibson, National System Leader – Careers at the Academies Enterprise Trust.
14:20 - 15:00	The Priory Learning Trust	James Wilmot	Life after lockdown. Balancing the tech and the tangle in a post-Covid world	We have all adopted different approaches and dabbled with different technologies in the last 12 months. What will we take with us next year? Which solutions will enhance our offer to our students and which put us at risk of merely ticking the box?
